ADAM M. GERSON, MS CIH CSP

Safety and Health Manager, OSHA Region X
Occupational Safety and Health Administration
U.S. Department of Labor

Adam Gerson joined the Seattle Regional Office of the U.S. Department of Labor – OSHA in 2005. He is the Recordkeeping, Construction, and English as a Second Language (ESL) Coordinator for federal OSHA's jurisdiction of Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Alaska. The coordinators assist a variety of groups, including small businesses, trade associations, union locals, and community and faith-based groups with outreach, education and training to Spanish-speaking workers.

Before coming to Seattle, Adam had 12 years of experience as a Compliance Officer throughout the United States. He surveyed incidence rates in poultry and meat processing, conducted safety inspections after Hurricane Katrina, and investigated fall hazards in residential construction. He is certified in the comprehensive practice of industrial hygiene by the American Board of Industrial Hygiene, and as a certified safety professional by the Board of Certified Safety Professionals.

In Adam's free time he enjoys gardening, exercise, BBQ, and relaxing with his wife and poodle-mix dogs.
